Wednesday

58th installment of Chef Marlis' Culinary Tour through Germany. Baden-Baden, Germany

Baden-Baden is a spa town, located in the state of Baden-Württemberg in southwestern Germany. It lies at the northwestern border of the Black Forest mountain range on the small river Oos, just 10 km (6 mi) east of the Rhine, the border line to France. The springs at Baden-Baden were known to the Romans as Aquae ("The Waters") and Aurelia Aquensis ("Aurelia-of-the-Waters") after M. Aurelius Severus Alexander Augustus. There are 29 natural springs in the area, varying in temperature from 115 °F to 153 °F. The water is rich in salt and flows from artesian wells to the town's baths.
